

Il Barbiere di Siviglia

Gioacchino Rossini
Commedia in two acts

@ Klara Beck

Concept

Count Almaviva comes in disguise to the house of Doctor Bartolo and serenades Rosina, whom Bartolo keeps confined to the house. Figaro the barber, who knows all the town's secrets and scandals, explains to Almaviva that Rosina is Bartolo's ward, not his daughter, and that the doctor intends to marry her. Figaro devises a plan: the count will disguise himself as a drunken soldier with orders to be quartered at Bartolo's house so that he may gain access to Rosina. Almaviva is excited and Figaro looks forward to a nice cash pay-off.

Le Comte Almaviva s'est énamouré de Rosina, jeune fille surveillée au plus près par son tuteur Dr. Bartolo. Avec l'aide de son serviteur Fiorello et d'un groupe de musiciens, le Comte tente d'entrer en contact avec Rosina sous le pseudonyme de Lindoro – sans grand succès. Voilà qu'il tombe comme par hasard sur Figaro, barbier de Bartolo. Figaro offre ses services: Almaviva chante sa flamme à Rosina, ce qui cette fois-ci ne la laisse pas indifférente.
